

Travel Certificate

You should print this certificate off and ask your GP to complete the details in plenty of time for you to travel.

The holder of this certificate suffers from a life threatening allergy which could result in an anaphylactic reaction. They need to carry an adrenaline auto-injector for immediate emergency self-treatment. For this purpose, it is essential for the patient to carry their auto-injector device with them at all times including whilst on an aircraft.

EpiPen[®] (adrenaline) auto-injector or EpiPen[®] Jr (adrenaline) auto-injector does not endanger other passengers or flight personnel.

Please be aware of this traveller's health risk.

Reporting of side effects

If you get any side effects, talk to your doctor, pharmacist or nurse. This includes any possible side effects not listed in the package leaflet. Please report side effects with any medicine or vaccine to the medicines regulator MHRA through the Yellow Card Scheme. It is easiest and quickest to report side effects online via the Yellow Card website: www.mhra.gov.uk/yellowcard or search for MHRA Yellow Card in the Google Play or Apple App Store. Alternatively, prepaid Yellow Cards for reporting are available by writing to FREEPOST YELLOW CARD (no other address details necessary), by emailing yellowcard@mhra.gov.uk, by telephoning the Commission on Human Medicines (CHM) free phone line: 0800-731-6789, or by downloading and printing a form from the Yellow Card section of the MHRA website. You can also report side effects direct to the marketing authorisation holder at pv.uk@viatris.com
